Crime Stoppers News Release

WHAT: Man Breaks into House in the Early Morning Hours

Crime Stoppers and Investigators with the Harris County Sheriff's Office are seeking the public's assistance in locating a suspect who broke into a house in the early morning hours on Saturday February 27th, 2010 and sexually assaulted a 15 year old girl.

Around 4:00 in the morning on Saturday February 27th, a white or Hispanic male forced his way into a house in the Longwood Subdivision in Cypress, Texas. He entered the victim's bedroom and produced a large knife. After the assault but before he left the house he stole some personal property including a credit card. He was captured a short time later on a surveillance camera at the Wal-Mart located at 22605 Tomball Parkway using the stolen credit card.

The suspect is an 18 to 25 year old white or Hispanic male. He is around 5'8" to 5'10" tall and weighs between 150 to 175 pounds. He has a slender but muscular build. At the time he was wearing a gray Texas A&M hooded sweatshirt with blue jeans. He also had on a maroon Texas A&M baseball hat. He is possibly driving a dark colored small to midsized four door car.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for any information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline or submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org that leads to the identification, arrest and/or charging of the suspect in this case.
